Silver Dollar City Presents The White Glove With the New Area: Rudolph's Christmas Town! Friday, November 6, Benefitting Care For Kids

(Branson, MO) 10/2015 Guests at Silver Dollar City's special benefit event, The White Glove, will be the first to see the special features of the park's An Old Time Christmas festival, this year including the new area Rudolph's Christmas Town. The White Glove takes place at the park on Friday, November 6, beginning at 5:00 p.m., with proceeds benefitting area kids in need. The event includes a holiday feast with prime rib, glazed ham and all the trimmings, the final dress rehearsals of A Dickens' Christmas Carol and It's a Wonderful Life, Rudolph's Holly Jolly™ Christmas Light Parade, a preview of Rudolph's Christmas Town featuring characters from the popular television special "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," the 5-Story Christmas Tree and over 5 million lights.

The walk-through review, known at the park for decades as the "White Glove," is a dress rehearsal for shows, lights, food and décor on the evening before the park opens the festival to the public. This limited offering is a special benefit for Care For Kids, a project of the Silver Dollar City Foundation to assist area kids in need, with over 25,000 kids served and $1.25 million donated since 2006.

The White Glove event is limited to 400 tickets, with a special price of $60 per person. Tickets are available by calling 800-831-4FUN(386). Silver Dollar City's acclaimed festival An Old Time Christmas runs November 7 – December 30.
